Dear Ms. Cunanan,

Grace and peace to you!

As part of our efforts toward new evangelization, the Holy Rosary Parish, with support from the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) and the Angeles City Tourism Office (ACTO), presented a dance drama on the life of San Lorenzo Ruiz entitled Ang Martir on Holy Wednesday, March 23, 2016 at the Sto. Rosario Heritage District. The dance drama was choreographed and directed by highly-acclaimed artist Mr. Peter de Vera and performed by members of the parish community supported by performing artists of the Sinukwan Kapampangan Training Center for the Arts.

Ang Martir was very well-received and garnered praises for its artistry and creativity, and most importantly, its powerful message of courageous faith in God. In order to share this soul-stirring experience to a wider audience, most especially the youth, we are restaging Ang Martir on Friday, September 23, 2016, the month of the first Filipino saint's martyrdom, at the Holy Angel University Theatre. We would like to invite students from schools under your division to watch this dance drama and learn from the lessons embodied in the presentation.

We would be very pleased to discuss the details with you or with the heads of the different schools. For more information, please contact Ms. Hilana T. Roman through cellphone number 0917-510-6177. We share your resolve to inculcate in our youth a genuine love for God and love for others. Let us strengthen our partnership in the formation of our youth so that their lives may glorify God.

With every good wish and prayer to you and your schools, I remain,

In the service of Christ,

Rev. Fr. Francis F. Dizon VG
Parish Priest
