Subject: 2016 ABKD Poster Making Contest

Date : August 01, 2016

The Citizen's Disaster Response Center Inc., is a non-stock non-profit non-government organization duly registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. It is accredited by the Department of Social Welfare and Development as a social development agency with the mandate to carry-out community-based disaster management activities throughout the country.

As a part of its advocacy to create and raise awareness of disaster preparedness, CDRC has been conducting an annual poster-making contest for children entitled "APOY, BAGYO, KALAMIDAD: DIBUHONG PAMBATA (ABKD)"

This year, CDRC is once again inviting children 7 to 12 years old to participate in the contest which aims to generate children's perspective on disaster preparedness through artworks. ABKD is divided into two categories. Category A is open to children ages 7-9, where they are expected to express ideas on preparedness on any of the following subjects: typhoon or floods, volcanic eruption or lahar, earthquake, fire, landslide and damage to the environment brought about by mining, logging and other development project. Category B is for children ages 10-12. Artworks under this category should focus on any of the following subjects: drought, red tide or fish kill, infestation, outbreak of diseases or epidemic, armed conflict and climate change.

Artworks in any medium should be drawn on a ¼ illustration board must bear a title and a caption and submitted together with the contestants name, age, address, telephone number, school's name and grade level.

Entries must be submitted to CDRC not later than September 16, 2016. For other information, please check ABKD posters and flyers in schools and/or any of the DepEd Regional and Division Offices or call (02) 929-9820.
