Office of the Schools Division Superintendent

Angeles City Pampanga

Dear Madame,

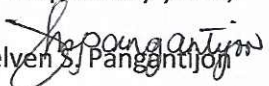

On the month of August to October, we celebrate National Book Month. This is the month that the publishers, school and private institution promote Filipino reading materials especially made for children. The commissions on National Book Month were spearheading this campaign by putting up whole exhibits, brainstorming, film showing and storytelling activities that will enhance the interest of Filipino children the importance and value of reading materials, as a company we encourage school administrator in both public and private schools to let the school children browse not only school textbook but also other informative reading materials.

In view of this, we channel this communication to your office to request permission if you could allow us to conduct book promotion in your respective schools. We are giving free couple of a sample for the library.

Thank you very much for helping us makes this important month a memorable on the Filipino elementary children.

GODBLESS...

Respectfully yours,

Helven S. Pangantilon
