Greetings of peace and solidarity!

This is Miguel Federico, the delegate manager of Siklab: Radiating Leadership. The organizing committee of Siklab: Radiating Leadership was receiving concerns about the November 6, 2017 date of the event because it so happens to coincide with many of the invited school's semestral breaks and opening of classes. In line with this, the organizing committee has decided to move Siklab to November 20, 2017.

I am writing this letter to inform the Angeles City Division Office of the new date of the event since the advisory released by the Division Office contains the initial date of the event. The organizing committee of Siklab has already taken the necessary actions to inform the involved schools of the new date.

Thank you and God bless!

Sincerely yours,

MIGUEL FEDERICO
