Subject: Barya sa Alkansya, tulong sa Eskwela

Date: May 26, 2017

Please be informed that Metro Angeles Bankers Association (MABA) is announcing its joint project with DepEd entitled Barya sa Alkansya, Tulong sa Eskwela. The project aims to create awareness among school children on the value of even the smallest denomination when put together is important. Moreover, this will make our Philippine coins be back to circulation.

Guidelines about the project are articulated in the attached letter of Ms. Nila Yumul, MABA President 2017.

For information and wide dissemination.

Ms. Leilani S. Cunanan, CESO VI
Schools Division Superintendent
DepEd Angeles

Dear Ms. Cunanan,

Greetings from Metro Angeles Bankers Association!

We would like to formalize our proposed joint project with Dep Ed Angeles entitled "Barya sa Alkansya, Tulong sa Eskwela". The project will have the following guidelines:

- Project will commence in June 2017 to September 30, 2017
- Each classroom will provide their own alkansya and MABA will provide the stickers to be posted on it
- All collected coins will be exchanged with all MABA member banks wherein an acknowledgement receipt will also be issued to them
- Coins on a per denomination basis will be put into plastic as follows:

5 centavos - 5 pesos/plastic

10 centavos - 10 pesos /plastic

25 centavos - 25 pesos/plastic

- Awarding of citations will be made during the Teachers Month in October 2017 for the classroom with the highest savings and School with the highest savings
- The 10% incentive will be given on a per school based on their total savings

This project aims to create awareness among school children on the value of even the smallest denomination when put together is important. Moreover, this will make our Philippine coins be back to circulation.

The success of this project lies in each and everyone of us. Thank you very much for being our partner on this.

God bless and more power!

Respectfully yours,

Nila Yumul
