“Establishing Dengue Free School Initiatives in Central Luzon ”

1. In response to the alarming increase of Dengue Cases in Schools, the DOH's Dengue Prevention and Control Program launched a project entitled “ Establishing Dengue Free School Initiatives in Central Luzon” last 2009 with an objective of establishing the selected schools as dengue free zones and route towards achieving dengue-free communities.

2. In this regard, the DOH-RO3 will conduct an “ Orientation on Dengue Prevention and Control Program among LLITC School Beneficiaries (Pampanga): on May 17, 2016 from 8:00am to 12:00 pm at SACOP Ephatha Development Center, Maimpis, City of San Fernando , Pampanga. This is to evaluate the status of Dengue cases among schools provided with LLITC and to identify other concerns/problem with regards to the implementation of the said project.

3. Participants to this activity are as follows:

- a. District Supervisors
- b. Principals/ Schools Heads
- c. 1(One) Science Teacher from each Public Elementary Schools

4. Attached are the LLTC school beneficiaries for your information and guidance.

4. Immediate and wide dissemination desired
