DIVISION MEMORANDUM
No. 084, s. 2023

CONDUCT OF MODULAR/ONLINE CLASSES TO AVOID DISRUPTION IN THE ACADEMIC CALENDAR

To: Assistant Schools Division Superintendent
Division Chiefs
Public and Private Elementary and Secondary School Heads

1. Mayor Carmelo Lazatin, Jr issued Executive Order No. 10, s. 2023 last March 1 ordering the suspension of face-to-face classes in all levels in all public and private schools in Angeles City from March 6 to 10, 2023 due to the announced nationwide transport strike.
2. This Office reiterates that only face-to-face classes are suspended, so public and private schools will revert to their preferred distance learning modality (modular or online) from March 6 to 10, 2023 in order to avoid disruption in the academic calendar and in adherence to DepEd Order No. 34, s. 2022.
3. Public and private school heads are requested to monitor the conduct of modular or online classes during the one-week suspension of face-to-face classes.
4. Immediate and wide dissemination of and compliance with this Memorandum are earnestly desired.
