TIME:

Dear Director Garma,

Greetings from the Department of Health Promotion and Education of the College of Public Health, University of the Philippines Manila!

We are pleased to invite your regional office staff to attend our short course on Qualitative Methods for Health Research on July 10 to 14, 2017 to be held at the College of Public Health, University of the Philippines Manila. This training will be useful for people who are involved in research and program evaluation. Attached is the draft program design for your peruse.

Should the personnel in your organization be interested to participate in course, we encourage them to make a training investment of PhP 12,000 per course per participant. This covers the course materials, lunch, AM/PM snacks, and certificate of training.

For early reservations, please contact Ms. Charmaine Cañizares at 5260811, 0917-8372115, cmcanizares@up.edu.ph at least one week before the scheduled training.

We look forward to the opportunity of developing professionals in health research.

Sincerely yours,

Prof. Ernesto R. Gregorio, Jr.
Course Coordinator
