Schools Division Superintendent, DepEd-SDO Angeles City

Greetings in the pursuit of teaching excellence!

The Teacher's Pen is the official publication of the Angeles University Foundation (AUF) College of Education (CED). It is dedicated to nurturing students' critical thinking and creative writing skills; conducting brainstorming and writing workshops; and implementing initiatives that encourage and strengthen student involvement in producing creative works that reflect human thoughts, issues, and ideas.

In pursuit of this mission, the organization, in collaboration with the AUF College of Education Student Council, and in cooperation with the official student publication of AUF, The Pioneer, will conduct the annual Journalism Fest on October 11, 2025 (Saturday), from 8:30 AM to 1:00 PM, at the AUF Main Campus, St. Cecilia Auditorium. With the theme, ALAB: From Press Stories to Society - Youth in the Battle for Truth, the event will feature various competitions in the field of journalism, namely: News Writing, Feature Writing, Editorial Writing, Editorial Cartooning, and the School Paper Release Contest.

This event aims to strengthen the role of journalism among senior high school students by promoting responsible communication, critical thinking, and nation-building; engaging them in competitions that hone their writing, storytelling, and editing skills; and shaping future campus journalists who are empowered to contribute meaningfully to their school and society.

In line with these, the organization most respectfully seeks the issuance of an endorsement and the necessary formal communication from your good Office to the public schools in Angeles City, thereby enjoining their active participation in the said event. The schools identified for inclusion are as follows:

- Amsic Integrated School
- Angeles City National High School
- Angeles City National Trade School
- Angeles City Science High School
- Angeles City Senior High School
- Dr. Celemente N. Dayrit Sr. Memorial High School
- Francisco G. Nepomuceno High School
- Malabanias Integrated School
- Sapang Bato National High School
- Sto. Domingo Integrated School

Through the endorsement, the Teacher's Pen aspires to foster greater collaboration between the academic community and the organization in developing young campus journalists who will serve as responsible voices of their generation.

Should there be any concerns or inquiries, the organization will be pleased to address them at your most convenient time through this email address: teacherspenauf@gmail.com.

The organization looks forward to your response, as your support will be vital to the success of the event and will be deeply appreciated.
