2. Participants must be in their prescribed school uniform with ID during the contest proper.
3. There shall be a maximum of five (5) contestants per school. For every round, the team must be composed of (3) students from at least two (2) different grade levels; the other two (2) will serve as alternates.
4. The questions shall cover topics in Mathematics, Science, Filipino, Literature, History and Current Events.
5. Each question will only be read once by the quizmaster.
6. The quizmaster shall announce the number of seconds allotted to answer a question. The time allotment will depend on the question's nature and level of difficulty. The timer starts after the signal (Go!). After the time limit, the answer sheets will immediately be collected by the ushers, failure to submit the answer sheet on time will invalidate the answer of the team.
7. Answers that require computations should be written with the appropriate units indicated in the question. The final answer must be rounded off to the number of decimal places indicated in the stem of the question. Answers with incorrect or no units or those not rounded off to the correct decimal places will be considered incorrect.
8. Answers that are proper nouns shall be written starting with a capital letter. Failure to capitalize the first letter of a proper noun will render the answer incorrect.
9. If the answer is a name of a person, the relevant parts of the name that is required will be indicated on the question.
10. As the question is being read, groups can start solving and/or may proceed to write their answers on the answer sheets.
11. Mobile devices and calculators are not allowed during the contest. The use of such devices will result in the team's disqualification.
12. Only duly registered coaches and team captains are allowed to appeal within the given time. Doing so, the appealing party should present their sources within three (3) minutes. Two (2) green flags will be given to each competing team, 1 for the coach and 1 for the team captain, which can be raised if an appeal is to be made. Electronic sources shall only be considered if the site is an academic reference or journal, peer-reviewed material, organization site, online newspaper, etc. NO COMPLAINT SHALL BE ENTERTAINED AFTER A NEW QUESTION HAS BEEN GIVEN.

13. Substitution shall only be allowed at the end of each round.

14. The contest shall consist of the following categories with the corresponding points for every correct answer.

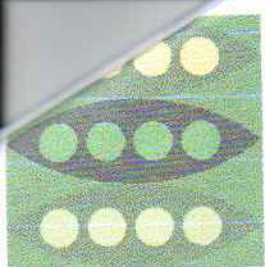

EASY ROUND	5 Questions	2 points
AVERAGE ROUND	5 Questions	5 points
