Greetings of Peace!

The Junior Chamber International (JCI) is a global community of young and active citizens that take pride in creating positive change in the society. We act on the premise of the continuous pursuit for bettering our individual members, in various fields of business, charity and civil service; through local development projects and activities.

In line with this, JCI Angeles City "Culiat" – a local chapter of Junior Chamber International – is inviting your distinguished institution to attend for this year's business seminar entitled "Entrepreneurial Essentials: How to build a successful business" on July 5, 2016 – 10 o'clock in the morning at SM Clark Cinema 5. This event is aimed at cultivating leadership and active youth participation in the field of entrepreneurship through discussions with renowned business leader – Francis J. Kong.

Tickets can be reserved for your institution. We do hope for your positive response and are looking forward to a continued correspondence for the success of this endeavor. For more information kindly contact the undersigned on 0925-893-6227 / 0917-554-6227.

Sincerely,

JCI Mem. Yves Amiel S. Hizon
