Dear Mr. Pagaduan:

This is in reply to your letter dated October 25, 2024 requesting for the approval of the rescheduling of the conduct Union Day to facilitate the ratification of the newly approved Collective Negotiation Agreement (CNA) of the teaching group/due to the suspension of work and classes brought about by Typhoon Kristine.

Considering that the ratification process is an integral part in the approval of the Collective Negotiation Agreement, your request is hereby approved. Attendance of teachers shall be on official time, as such, classes shall be on alternative delivery mode.

To effectively conduct the activity without the disruption of classes, proper coordination with the Schools Division Superintendents and School Heads is advised.

Please be guided accordingly.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE S. MALLARI, PhD, CESO V

OIC-Regional Director

Dear Sir,

Greetings of Peace and Solidarity!

I am writing to formally request Union Day rescheduling due to the disruptions caused by Typhoon Kristine. The CNA Ratification process was intended to commence on October 24 for Pampanga and October 25 for Zambales; however, classes were suspended in these areas, preventing the scheduled activities from taking place.

In light of these circumstances, we propose rescheduling the Union Days.

DATE	PROVINCES
October 30, 2024 Wednesday	Pampanga
November 5, 2024 Tuesday	Zambales
November 7, 2024 Thursday	Bataan
November 8, 2024 Friday	Nueva Ecija
November 12, 2024 Tuesday	Bulacan
November 14, 2024 Thursday	Tarlac
November 15, 2024 Friday	Aurora

We believe that this adjustment will allow us to adequately prepare for the successful ratification of our CNA, marking a historic milestone for both DEPED and the teaching force through its Union. Your support in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Thank you for considering our request. We look forward to your favorable response.

Respectfully yours,

ARLENE JAMES S. PAGADUAN

Union President
