Sir:

I respectfully inform your good office of the participation of the identified teachers in the Division Training on Upskilling Inclusive Communication and Literacy Practices, scheduled on October 3 & 10 at Learning & Development of Angeles Elementary School-Inclusive learning Resource Center (AES ILRC), in accordance with the objectives, requirements, and applicable guidelines governing the activity.

This training is designed to strengthen the competencies of teachers in delivering inclusive and equitable education for all learners with disabilities. It focuses on enhancing participants' knowledge, skills, and practical application of inclusive communication and literacy practices, particularly in the areas of Individualized Educational Plan (IEP), Individualized Transition Plan (ITP), Filipino Sign Language (FSL), Braille Reading and Writing, Differentiated Instruction (DI), and Universal Design for Learning (UDL).

In compliance with the prescribed requirements, all identified teachers/participants of the SNED implementing schools have submitted their Letters of Intent (LOIs), signifying their intention and commitment to participate in the activity and fulfill their assigned functions and responsibilities expected of them throughout the activity.

Consistent with RA 4670, DepEd Order No. 008, s. 2023, DepEd Order No. 005, s. 2024 and DepEd Order No. 013, s. 2024, the participation shall be undertaken outside regular class hours and/or on Saturdays, subject to existing policies, applicable requirements, and the approval of the proper authority. This arrangement is intended to minimize disruption to regular classes while ensuring compliance with prescribed procedures and accountability of all concerned in the implementation of professional development programs.

In view of the foregoing, the undersigned certifies that the LOIs of the identified teachers have been duly submitted, reviewed, and validated in support of their participation. The identified teachers shall likewise observe the applicable policies, fulfill their designated responsibilities, and assume the corresponding accountability for their participation and performance during the activity.

Thank you for your continued support for personnel development and the delivery of quality basic education.

Respectfully yours,
